CHAPTER XVIII.

A CONTRACT WITH A ROBBER CHIEF.

HARVEY broke the spell of silence:

"I thought you would see daylight. Now that we agree, let us go on and plan. We must not lose sight of the fact that we are dealing with unknown quantities. We have no method of learning just where the girls are. We must use measures that will assist us. What was your idea when you spoke of becoming a traitor?"

"I become a traitor the moment I give you your liberty and accompany you upon the proscribed ground of Bokhara."

"You must go even further than that. We must use the robbers."

"Palpak! I must at least send him and his brothers to Tiflis."

"You will then throw aside the one staff that can assist us over the difficulty."

"What use can the robbers be to us?"

"This fellow Palpak is chief of a clan called Zannucks, who hate the ameer and all those who are faithful to him. I overheard them talking in the cave. It seems the ameer levies such exorbitant taxes that the Zannucks cannot pay. He taxes everything—wives, children, cattle. That is the reason the chief seeks to rob the ameer and his people—to reimburse the Zannucks. Palpak would not hesitate to help us if by helping us he could work injury to the ameer. Grant the robbers their freedom. Let them take their booty to their people on condition that they assist us in rescuing the girls."

"Set free robbers who have attacked Russian paymasters?"

"You said that you would not turn back. Now you are trying to turn two ways—one toward Tiflis, the other toward Bokhara. It will not do. If you wish to accomplish anything in this affair, you must go the whole figure—take all and win or lose. That is the way I do business."

"What is your plan?"

"Have Palpak brought here and let us talk with him in a straightforward, businesslike way. Any man will help another if he can also benefit himself by doing so."

"I leave it to you. Your head is full of plans, while mine is simply taken up with thinking of poor Koura."

"I think of Alma as much as you do of Koura. But simply thinking will not rescue them. We must act, and act quickly."

Orskoff sent for Nevsky. The lieutenant was pacing the bridge, eager to be off. He could not understand why the captain did not hurry to Tiflis with the prisoners instead of wasting the time chatting in an apparently friendly way with one of them.

"Lieutenant, have the chief robber brought to me," said the captain.

As Palpak was being led toward them Orskoff said to Harvey: "Conduct the negotiations. I will agree to anything you plan."

Orskoff ordered the irons removed from the robber. When the three were alone, Harvey said to Palpak:

"We have had you brought here to as the finest camels of the ameer would be in waiting for them, with a guard of his best soldiers."

"Is it not possible that a caravan of rich goods will take advantage of this escort and go to Bokhara?"

"It would be so."

"There would be some delay getting started."

"The ameer's soldiers would be afraid to linger."

"Then what can be done, Palpak?"

We put the matter into your hands."

"Excellent sirs, you promise me

"We have had you brought here to have a businesslike talk."

much. One of you saved my life; the other, a Russian officer, releases me, and I can take the treasure to my starving people. I am grateful. I will do all I can to assist you in winning back the young women. From Sileon the road to Bokhara is winding. It runs through what is called the Sileon pass. We are now in what is known as the Kharabogaz. A short sail from here is a small village on the coast belonging to my people. By going there and taking the trail over the mountains we can reach the Sileon pass at a point where it will be four days' journey for the caravan. It will take us only three days."

"Good," said Harvey. "What then?"

"The Zannucks have many causes to hate the soldiers of the ameer. They will have fine camels and horses. There will also be many valuables going to Bokhara. If there is to be a wedding of a prince, there will be great feasting, and the ameer will distribute gifts. Some of these will be in the caravan. My people will follow me to the Sileon pass."

"By the Kharabogaz do you mean the Scythian gulf?" asked Harvey.

"Yes. It is what we call the gulf."

"Then our plan is clear. Orskoff, you and I will go with Palpak in his boat to this village of his people and accompany his warriors to the pass. Send Nevsky to Sileon with all speed. If he finds the caravan there, let him attack and rescue the girls. If the caravan has gone, let him wait there for our return. We must go back to Sileon if we rescue the girls or there will be no way of leaving the coast."

"I will explain the plan to Nevsky," said Orskoff.

Nevsky listened with many misgivings. A Russian officer to release prisoners in this manner and to set foot on forbidden soil! But Orskoff was his superior officer. He could do nothing but obey.

The treasure was placed in Palpak's sailing vessel, and the four robbers, with Harvey and Orskoff, the latter fully armed from the stores of the gunboat, went on board. The gunboat steamed away for Sileon, and the other boat, with all sail set, started for Palpak's little village.

MUKDEN BUSTLING

Something Is In the Wind at Headquarters of Russian Army.

AN UNUSUAL ACTIVITY

Something Is Surely Doing and I May Mean Any One of Three Things.

No Confirmation Has Been Received of Reported Naval Battle at Port Arthur.

The significance of a Mukden dispatch noting an unusual activity in that place is the subject of much speculation at St. Petersburg. The theory that it indicates the purpose of Gen. Kuropatkin to evacuate Mukden is not generally accepted, military officers surmising that the commotion noted is in connection with a movement to check a Japanese flanking operation. In Russian official circles some credence is given to the rumor that Admiral Wiren has left Port Arthur with his ships, the confusion resulting because a severe storm on Tuesday is regarded as having made such a dash possible. Time-expired members of the guards regiments in St. Petersburg and vicinity have been ordered to remain with the colors. There are indications that the Russian warships in the Baltic will soon be dispatched to the far East.

HAVE'N'T HEARD OF IT

Russian Admiralty in Dark Concerning Naval Engagement.

Mukden, Oct. 7.—Something unusual is in the wind. A great bustle is now noticeable. The streets are thronged with hurrying crowds and innumerable carts and pack mules.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 7.—While the admiralty says it has no knowledge of the departure of the Port Arthur squadron, it is inferred from the way in which the report that such an event had occurred has been received, that definite confirmation would not create surprise. It is said that no direct orders have been sent to Admiral Wiren to break through the blockading fleet, but it is tacitly admitted that the admiral has discretionary powers to leave Port Arthur should the situation demand or conditions be propitious.

In naval circles it is pointed out that Wednesday morning the conditions might have been favorable for a sortie. Heavy storms raged Tuesday and doubtless compelled the blockading vessels, and particularly the torpedo boats, to seek shelter, thus leaving the way clear for a dash to Vladivostok. Some naval officers, however, are inclined to think the firing that was heard at Chefoo may have been directed only against blockade runners. Significant orders have been issued to keep time-expired members of all the guards regiments stationed in and around St. Petersburg with the colors till March, 1905.

Japs Fixing for Winter.

Field Headquarters of the Second Japanese Army, Oct. 6, via Fusan, Oct. 7.—The Japanese are bringing up enormous quantities of supplies and ammunition for the winter campaign, using the reconstructed railway, carts and junks on the Liao and the Taitse rivers. The railroad traffic is uninterrupted and additional soldiers continue to arrive. Outpost skirmishes are confined to the first and the fourth armies. The troops are standing the climate splendidly, few being reported sick. Cold weather is just beginning.

Engagement in Doubt.

London, Oct. 7.—No confirmation has reached London of the reported naval fight off Port Arthur, a story to which effect was sent out by a news agency, and it is supposed that the firing heard at Chefoo, which was reported by the same agency, could only have been from Japanese warships chasing blockade runners.

Cutting Down Expenses.

Tokio, Oct. 7.—The prefectural governors are now meeting in Tokio and are conferring with members of the cabinet. The prefectural expenses have been reduced $10,000,000 since the beginning of hostilities, and other retrenchments are planned for the purpose of strengthening the national finances.

Ohio Murderer Electrocuted.

Columbus, Ohio, Oct. 7.—"Dutch" Fisher, alias Albert Miller, was electrocuted in the annex at the Ohio penitentiary a few minutes after midnight for the murder of William Marshall, a bartender at Toledo, Ohio, in January last. His last statement was a reiteration of his confession that Walter Crosby, sentenced to life imprisonment for complicity in the crime, is innocent.

Diamond Thief's Big Haul.

Ashville, N. C., Oct. 7.—Burglars entered the residence of John A. Stewart and secured $10,000 worth of diamonds. There is no clue to the robbers. Mr. Stewart came here about a year ago from Switzerland.

TAFT MADE A HIT

Secretary of War Well Received at Indianapolis Meeting.

Indianapolis, Oct. 7.—The closing meeting of the Republican National League last night was, in a way, one of the most remarkable held here in recent years, as it demonstrated that the people like to hear a plain statement of a situation as well as not better than flights of oratory in which partisan lines are paramount. Secretary of War Taft made no claims to being an orator, yet an immense audience sat for two hours and listened in rapt attention to his plain story of the Philippines. He spoke more as a lecturer than a campaigner, and every word he said was followed closely. In the audience were many who disagreed with him, but they complimented him with their close attention. In this way it was one of the unusual meetings of the campaign, and party leaders said today that it confirmed the new theory that the people want plain statements and argument as well as oratory. Senator Beveridge also addressed the closing meeting of the league and claimed the usual close attention of his audience.

The Democratic state committee is being more generously treated by the national organizations than Chairman Goodrich and his associates are by the managers of the Republican national campaign. Chairman Ryan says he has more big speakers than he can route right now, which may be taken as an indication of what the Democratic national committee is trying to do in Indiana. Money is not being spared in the effort to arouse enthusiasm. At the outset of the campaign it was announced that the Republicans would have their best speakers sent to Indiana, but the supply was recently shut off, and Chairman Lyons of the speakers' bureau is now calling in vain for more men, although he has over 200 in the field. The only explanation offered by the managers of the Republican campaign here is that the Republican national committee evidently feels that Indiana is pretty safe and that there is no occasion for sending so many spellbinders as originally intended.

Joseph T. Fanning, Taggart's first lieutenant at the national committee rooms at New York, has not come to Indiana to open headquarters or to take charge of the campaign in this state. He is merely meeting the Seventh district leaders for the purpose of getting a line on the Marion county situation. The Democrats are especially anxious about this county. Taggart, as a matter of course, would rather carry it than any other Indiana county, as it is his home and he takes pride in his influence here. He carried the county once when Benjamin Harrison was a candidate for president, and he would like to force Senator Fairbanks to bite the dust. It is understood that Fanning will return to New York the latter part of next week to report the conditions here to Taggart, and the latter will probably start for Indiana within a fortnight from now to get in a few final licks.

It is probable that Senator Fairbanks will make a tour of Indiana on a special train as soon as Bryan gets through. He wants to spend the latter part of the campaign in his own state, and in view of the active preparations of the Democrats for Bryan's trip it is quite likely that the state Republican campaign managers will be more anxious than ever to have Senator Fairbanks make a trip. It is said that the senator would like to spend two weeks in Indiana, but it is not expected that he can get that much time, as the national committee seems to have plenty of places to assign him. As soon as he returns from his long Western tour it is probable that a conference will be arranged between him and the Indiana leaders at which the plans for the close of the campaign in Indiana will be discussed.

The big task of the campaign will be undertaken tomorrow by both the Republicans and Democrats. It is the taking of the thirty-day poll. One of the campaign managers said today: "We are simply getting down now to brass tacks," meaning of course that they are about to find out just how the land lies. Both sides have arranged to take the poll so carefully that there will not be much doubt in the minds of the men who know what the figures show.

Indiana Man Seriously Hurt.

St. Louis, Oct. 7.—Bert Fankborer of Marion, Ind., chief engineer of the coal testing plant of the United States geological survey at the World's Fair, was probably fatally injured by one of the trains of the miniature railroad that runs through the mining gulch. Fankborer fell from one of the cars and was dragged more than 100 feet. His right leg was severed near the thigh, his stomach badly cut and his head bruised.

Company Asks for Receiver.

Spartanburg, N. C., Oct. 7.—The Valley Falls manufacturing company, operating 3,400 spindles and 100 looms with a pay-roll of $2,000 per month, has been placed in the hands of a receiver. The application was made by Walter Crosby, sentenced to life imprisonment for complicity in the crime, is innocent.

Deadly Boiler Explosion.

Pensacola, Fla., Oct. 7.—By the explosion of a boiler at the Stratton Ice works five persons were seriously injured, and it is believed that several employes are dead and buried beneath the debris of the wrecked building.

New Russian Minister of the Interior Friendly to American Representations.

THE PASSPORT QUESTION

This Long Standing Subject of Diplomatic Interest Now In a Way of Settlement.

Prince Mirsky Exhibits a Friendly Interest in Conference With Ambassador McCormick.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 7.—Contrary to general expectations, the representations submitted to Russia by the United States for the recognition without discrimination of American passports have not been entirely fruitless. Foreign Minister Lamsdorff's response communicated to Ambassador McCormick even creates the hope that something may actually be accomplished. After receiving consideration at the foreign office the American note was referred to the high commission for general revision of the passport laws.

PRINCE PIERRE DMITRI SVIATOPOLK-MIRSKY.

of the empire which was created by imperial ukase on Dec. 17, 1903. As all matters relating to passports and the exclusion of Jews are governed by the internal laws of the empire, the question is outside the direct field of diplomatic negotiation. By referring the representation of the United States, compliance with which would involve a modification of the passport laws, to the commission, which body is competent to act thereon, a decision of the question may therefore be directly reached. An official of the foreign office has been appointed by Count Lamsdorff to sit with the commission, thus insuring consideration of the international aspects of the question. Moreover, the commissioner will sit under the direction of the minister of the interior and Ambassador McCormick, who had an extended talk with Prince Sviatopolk-Mirsky, the minister of the interior, upon the subject last evening, found him, as might have been expected from his recent public utterance, sympathetic. Indeed, there is reason to believe that reference of the subject to the commission was previously arranged at a conference between Count Lamsdorff and Prince Sviatopolk-Mirsky.

Considering that this is the first time the Russian authorities have not brusquely declined to entertain American representations upon this question, the present response to Ambassador McCormick may be regarded as another signal proof of Russia's desire for friendly relations with the United States.

England's Military Needs.

London, Oct. 7.—At Sheffield last night Arnold Forster, secretary for war, made a strong speech on the country's military needs. He said his experience in the war office had convinced him that the lessons of the Boer war had not yet been learned, and that dangers existed requiring immediate treatment. "We do not want an army," he said, "for sport, for social opportunities or for recreation, but an army which is ready to face a foreign army and defeat it."

Activity of Mount Pelee.

Kingston, St. Vincent, Oct. 7.—The captain of the British steamer Sibun, which has just arrived, reports that when the steamer passed the Island of Martinique on Sept. 30, Mount Pelee was in full eruption. The spectacle was seen by those on board the Sibun at 2 o'clock in the morning of the day mentioned, the volcano emitting stupendous black clouds and balls of fire.

Crusade on Hold-up Men.

Chicago, Oct. 7.—Four hold-up men were sentenced to the state penitentiary for life yesterday. This makes eight such convictions and sentences in Chicago within a week. The state's attorney has begun a determined crusade against all street bandits, and in the future life sentences will be asked for all these criminals.

$3,000,000 Corporation Sold.

New York, Oct. 7.—The $3,000,000 International Mercantile agency was sold at public auction for $26,000 to Charles H. Barritt of Philadelphia, who is now sole owner of the entire corporation.

Young women may avoid much sickness and pain, says Miss Alma Pratt, if they will only have faith in the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I feel it my duty to tell all young women how much Lydia E. Pinkham's wonderful Vegetable Compound has done for me. I was completely run down, unable to attend school, and did not care for any kind of society, but now I feel like a new person, and have gained seven pounds of flesh in three months.

"I recommend it to all young women who suffer from female weakness."—MISS ALMA PRATT, Holly, Mich.

FREE MEDICAL ADVICE TO YOUNG GIRLS.

All young girls at this period of life are earnestly invited to write Mrs. Pinkham for advice; she has guided in a motherly way hundreds of young women; her advice is freely and cheerfully given, and her address is Lynn, Mass.

Judging from the letters she is receiving from so many young girls Mrs. Pinkham believes that our girls are often pushed altogether too near the limit of their endurance nowadays in our public schools and seminaries.

Nothing is allowed to interfere with studies, the girl must be pushed to the front and graduated with honor; often physical collapse follows, and it takes years to recover the lost vitality,—often it is never recovered.

A Young Chicago Girl Saved from Despair.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I wish to thank you for the help and benefit I have received through the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills. When I was about seventeen years old I suddenly seemed to lose my usual good health and vitality. Father said I studied too hard, but the doctor thought different and prescribed tonics, which I took by the quart without relief. Reading one day in the paper of Mrs. Pinkham's great cures, and finding the symptoms described answered mine, I decided I would give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. I did not say a word to the doctor; I bought it myself, and took it according to directions regularly for two months, and I found that I gradually improved, and that all pains left me, and I was my old self once more. —LILLIE E. SINCLAIR, 17 E. 22d St., Chicago Ill."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the one sure remedy to be relied upon at this important period in a young girl's life; with it she can go through with courage and safety the work she must accomplish, and fortify her physical well being so that her future life may be insured against sickness and suffering.

$5000 FORFEIT if we cannot forthwith produce the original letters and signatures of above testimonials, which will prove their absolute genuineness. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

FRIDAY OCTOBER 7, 1904.

J. C. SMITH, { Editors and Publishers.
W. A. REMY, }

Printed at the Seymour, Indiana Postoffice as Second-class Matter.

MR. BRYAN describes the labor plank in the reorganizer platform as straddling and meaningless. It is straddling, all right, but it is not intended to be meaningless. It is meant to catch votes both going and coming, but it won't.

THE Columbus Herald a leading Democratic paper of that city was so impressed with the logic of Senator Beveridge's speech last Saturday night, that it made the frank admission that with a few more speeches like it, the Democrats would meet their Waterloo in Bartholomew.

WHEN the reorganizer candidate says that the common law is sufficient to regulate trusts, he doubtless means that the common law furnishes all he would want to do to the trusts. It certainly furnishes all that Cleveland did and a good deal more. There is little reason to doubt that Parker looks upon trusts as Cleveland did, and under the Cleveland administration absolutely nothing was done even toward restricting these combinations—except the evil that came to every business.

JOHN B. STOLL a Palmer and Buckner Democrat of South Bend, in a recent article for the Indianapolis Star, earnestly advocates the election of Parker on the ground that it will effectively kill off Bryan as a political factor in the Democratic party. He points out that Bryan has said that after the election he will begin the organization of the Democratic party along old lines. Stoll thinks the only way to give Bryan and his followers a sure knock out is to elect Parker.

REMEMBER that Hon. Addison C. Harris, ex-minister to Austria, speaks here next Tuesday night.

THE latest move of the reorganizers is to get control of the legislature and send Tom Taggart to the United States senate to succeed Senator Beveridge. What a come-down that would be! But the people of Indiana will not stand for such a step back ward.

OUR friend and fellow townsman, Joseph H. Shea, in his article for the Indianapolis Star objects to Roosevelt because the Republican party is going to "stand pat" for the American protective system. That is just why so many farmers and business men of Jackson county are for Roosevelt, they would rather stand pat than to go broke.

EX-SENATOR PETTIGREW, of South Dakota, who was a delegate to the convention at St. Louis that nominated Parker, announces that he will vote for Tom Watson, the populist. He says no democrat should vote for Parker, whose nomination was engineered by Wall street speculators and the trusts. Pettigrew has always been a firm believer in Bryan.

BRYAN said in the commoner on July 13 that "the nomination of Judge Parker virtually nullifies the anti-trust plank" of the democratic platform. In other words Bryan says that since Parker was picked out for the democrats by trust representatives he is now and will continue to be under their control. No wonder so many faithful followers of Bryan are apposed to Parker.

E. C. Howerton, the genial and accommodating baggage master at the Panhandle station, has resigned to take employment with the B. & O. S-W. at Mitchell as yard clerk. He begins work at Mitchell Oct. 17.

IMPROMPTU RECEPTION.

SENATOR BEVERIDGE
HERE AN HOUR TODAY

Met by 500 Citizens and Responds to Greeting in a Brief Speech
--Given an Ovation.

At 9 o'clock this morning word came to Seymour that Senator Beveridge would arrive from Indianapolis at 10:00 on his way to West Baden. No one in the city knew of his coming before that time. Quickly the word was passed along that the Senator would be here for an hour and would be tendered a reception at the depot. The band was secured and when the train pulled in fully 500 people were there to greet him. The size of the crowd was a surprise to every one, for

SENATOR BEVERIDGE.

It did not seem possible that so many could have learned of his coming in the short space of an hour.

Senator Beveridge was amazed to see the crowd. It was all a surprise to him but a very pleasing one. It was an impromptu reception indeed, but it was most cordial.

Senator Beveridge was escorted across the street to the Hotel Jonas, from the steps of which he spoke for twenty minutes, after being introduced by Judge O. H. Montgomery.

Senator Beveridge, after expressing his appreciation for the cordial and enthusiastic reception tendered, spoke briefly on campaign issues, dwelling chiefly on the protective tariff policy of the Republican party. He emphasized the inter-relation of the farm and the factory and all other industries. He said that a protective tariff did more than bring prosperity, that it did away with much strife and turmoil and knit men together in one common brotherhood. Busy factories means steady employment for labor. This made business for the merchant and supplied a market for the products of the farm. All prosper together.

At the conclusion of the Senator's speech all crowded around him to shake his hand. During this time an incident occurred that greatly pleased the Senator and was cheered by the crowd. The wife of a prominent resident of the city went up to shake hands with him and said in a clear voice, giving her own name, "My husband is a Democrat, but I am a Republican. I am pleased to meet you and was delighted with your speech."

Though the Senator's stay was short and his coming was known only an hour in advance the fact that he was here and spoke, greatly pleased our people.

Senator Beveridge left on No. 1 for West Baden where he spoke this afternoon.

PRAISES ARKANSAS.

Franklin Ruddick is Pleased With His New Home.

Editor Seymour Republican:

By request of friends in my old home town I will beg space in your valuable paper to let them hear from me and of my home in the Ozarks. I am located in Northwest Arkansas, in Carroll county, about 18 miles south of Berryville, the county seat of the eastern district of Carroll county. I like the country splendid and have no thought of ever returning to Indiana as people here suggested when we bid them adieu. This country is mountainous, but here we don't cultivate any lands that we can't plow both ways. Our climate is good, water pure and vegetables and all kinds of grain do well here. Our country is crossed by many small streams, which are full of small fish. Some small game in the woods. Our country is all timber land, which consists of pine, cedar, several kinds of oak, hickory, walnut, maple, sugar tree and many other kinds such as are found in the forests.

Land is very cheap here, and I would say to many whom I know in Indiana, come to Arkansas, get you a home while it is cheap and where you can raise your stock on the range, where the tingle of the cow bells will be music to your ears. Our winters are short and mild; farmers here feed only about three months in the year. Thousands of hogs are raised here without feeding, as they feed on the mast. Churches and schools are in reach of everybody. If you want to go to a land of plenty, where you can raise big red apples, come to Arkansas.

I will give you some prices down here: Good mules and horses from $100 to $150. Cattle, good cows, $15 to $25; fat hogs, 5 cents per pound; corn, 25 to 30 cents; wheat $1 05 per bushel.

Will say in conclusion that I and my son own 421 acres of land and that it is not for sale, neither am I a real estate man, but if there are any one who may want to know more about Arkansas, if they will address me with a self-addressed and stamped envelope I will take pleasure in answering any questions that may be asked.

I had the pleasure of meeting W. H. Mead today, who now lives at Purdy, Ark., and who has lived in Arkansas for 19 years and who was formerly an Ohio man, and he, with me, likes Arkansas.

With best wishes for all my old friends; also the editor, I will close.

Yours respectfully,
FRANKLIN RUDDICK.

FAKE WEATHER FORECASTS.

Positively Injurious to the Public,
Say Weather Bureau Officials.

At the recent National Convention of State Directors and Forecasters of the United States Weather Bureau, at Peoria, Ill., "fake" weather prophets was one of the subjects discussed, along with the legitimate forecasts of Weather Bureau officials. There was an exhaustive discussion of meteorological theories, and the results of laboratory work and research, as well as many of the practical problems with which weather bureau men are called upon to wrestle. But the topic that came in for the greatest share of the time and attention of the convention, and the one, also, in which the public naturally has the greatest interest, was that of "forecasting."

It was agreed that the term "long range forecasting," when properly used, means a forecast covering a longer period than the regular one, two and sometimes three-day forecasts issued by the Weather Bureau—forecasts of, say a week, a month or a year. But, with our present knowledge of the laws governing atmospheric circulation, such forecasts can not be successfully made and the term has come to be popularly used to describe the "fakes" called forecasts that are foisted upon the public by charlatans in almanacs and other publications, and occasionally, we regret to say, through the medium of newspapers.

In support of the assertion that any longer forecasts than those made daily by the Weather Bureau, were impossible, the statement of Prof. Fernter, Director of the Central Institute of Meteorology at Vienna, Austria, was recalled, who said: "I do not hesitate to declare that it is absolutely sure and certain that at the present time (January, 1903) no human being is in possession of the knowledge of the physical basis for weather predictions. * * * All that can be accomplished by a partial knowledge of true physical principles is now being done by the meteorological institutions and it is certain that no one knows of a single principle of importance more than those known to the experts of these institutions, who, in their predictions, certainly make use of all principles known."

And on recent statement of Prof. Willis L. Moore, Chief of the United States Weather Bureau, on the subject of "fake" forecasts, was recalled, who said: "They may believe that they have discovered a physical law or a meteorological principle that has not been revealed to investigation, but the publication of predictions that, by reason of their absolute inaccuracy, are likely to be positively injurious to agricultural, commercial and other industrial interests, casts a serious doubt upon the honesty of their purpose. As a result of my personal investigation of the work of long-range weather forecasters, some of whom have so far gained the confidence of the rural press as to receive liberal compensation for their predictions, I am led to the conclusion that they knowingly perpetrate fraud and to positive injury to the public at large. I hope the time will come when it will be possible to forecast the weather for coming seasons, but that time has not yet arrived."

Pleased Columbus

Hal Stephens and Harry Linton, two of the funniest men on the stage today, were the headliners at Crump's theatre last night in "My Wife's Family." The piece is full of fun from start to finish and the audience was kept in an uproar. Several musical specialties were introduced which made a decided hit and a number of scores had to be given. The cast is well balanced and the show is a good one from beginning to end.—Columbus Republican.

A startling incident, is narrated by John Oliver, of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost white, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain constantly in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. ### TO WEAK WOMEN

OF SEYMOUR AND VICINITY.

We Make the Following Proposition:

"There are hundreds of women in this vicinity who are dragging themselves through life in pain and misery, without vitality, strength or health," said Peter of the W. F. Peter Drug Co., "They get no happiness out of life and are just in a condition to be attacked by almost any disease. They need a vitality-making and strength-creating tonic.

"Now, at our expense, we want to ask every such woman to try our cod liver oil preparation, Vinol, which contains in a highly concentrated form all of the medicinal elements of cod liver oil but no oil or grease. It is delicious to take, creates a healthy appetite, makes pure, rich, red blood and gives strength and vigor to every organ of the body better than any medicine we have ever sold in our store, and when a woman is in this condition it makes life worth living. When we say at our expense, we mean that if the medicine you buy from us and pay for does not benefit you—we will refund every cent of it cheerfully, and thus you try it at our expense."

Miss Mary A. Woodard of Indianapolis, Ind., writes: "I think Vinol is the best remedy in the world for a weak, tired, worn-out system. I was just in that condition when I commenced to take Vinol. It gave me new life and energy, and after using three bottles I felt like a different woman. I feel well and strong and better than I have for years. I believe Vinol will do much more than is claimed for it."

We can only ask Seymour women to try Vinol on our guarantee. W. F. Peter Drug Co.

Hopewell's Petie H. won the free-for-all trot in straight heats; Peter's Corona Boy won second and Coleman's Otto Greenglander won third. Best time 2:39. In the free-for-all run, Peter's Gen. Gordon won first in two straight heats, and Cyclone won second. Best time 2:49. This race was very exciting, as the horses ran "neck to neck" all the way in each heat, and finished under "whip and spur." The "Pony" race was won easily by Boy Babe, best time 2:03.

MALARIA

Germ Infected Air.

Malaria is not confined exclusively to the swamps and marshy regions of the country, but wherever there is bad air this insidious foe to health is found. Poisonous vapors and gases from sewers, and the musty air of cellars are laden with the germs of this miserable disease, which are breathed into the lungs and taken up by the blood and transmitted to every part of the body. Then you begin to feel out of sorts without ever suspecting the cause. No energy or appetite, dull headaches, sleepy and tired and completely fagged out from the slightest exertion, are some of the deplorable effects of this enfeebling malady. As the disease progresses and the blood becomes more deeply poisoned, boils and abscesses and dark or yellow spots appear upon the skin. When the poison is left to ferment and the microbes and germs to multiply in the blood, Liver and Kidney troubles and other serious complications often arise. As Malaria begins and develops in the blood, the treatment to be effective must begin there too. S. S. S. destroys the germs and poisons and purifies the polluted blood, and under its tonic effect the debilitated constitution rapidly recuperates and the system is soon clear of all signs of this depressing disease.

S. S. S. is a guaranteed purely vegetable remedy, mild, pleasant and harmless. Write us if you want medical advice or any special information about your case. This will cost you nothing.

EPISCOPALIAN ACTIVITIES

Church Discusses Divorce and Other Questions.

Boston, Oct. 7.—The Archbishop of Canterbury, speaking before a joint session of the house of bishops and house of deputies of the Episcopal church at Emmanuel church, delivered a message to the American body in which he urged that the church take steps to guard the religious life of the home. At that session of the house of deputies several resolutions to make more stringent the canon on the remarriage of divorced persons were presented. One resolution was aimed to prohibit the remarriage of a divorced person during the life of the former partner. The whole question will come up later.

After reporting against a change in the legal name of the church at this time, the committee appointed by the last convention to consider the matter was discharged. A member of the committee attempted to have a resolution drawn up by the minority members of the committee which dropped the words "Protestant Episcopal" from the title page of the prayer-book and will be discussed later.

An attempt was made by I. Cameron Buxton of Winston, N. C., to present a resolution deploring the action of Bishop Potter of New York in participating at the opening of the subway tavern in New York city, but the resolution was declared out of order. General J. H. Stotsenberg of Indiana introduced a resolution condemning lynching. A number of the Southern delegates voted to table the resolution, but eventually it was referred to a special committee.

All that money could do was done, but all hope of recovery vanished. Hearing of some wonderful cures effected by use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, I concluded to try it. The first bottle benefitted me, and after taking four bottles, I am fully restored to my usual strength, weight and health." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and cures. Sold by A. J. ### ONE WORD IN TIME.

Is Better Than Two Afterwards. A Chance to Profit by a Seymour Man's Experience.

It is a strange thing how people will put off an opportunity until too late; it's only little things that go to make up our every-day existence. The trouble is we don't pay sufficient attention to them. Backache is a little thing. Sometimes it comes after a hard day's work, or a slight cold. It will pass off you say; it's only the result of overtaxing my back. It isn't the fault of your back but your kidneys. The exertion or straining has interfered with their delicate mechanism. You call it backache but it is really kidney ache. If the kidneys are not relieved chronic disorders set in, and this is where "little things" should not be passed over. A Seymour man has learned to appreciate what delay means.

Mrs. Atlas Shannon of third street says: "I found Doan's Kidney Pills to give me positive relief from the dull dragging pain in my back, banish the extreme sensitiveness over the loins which caused sharp twinges when stooping or moving quickly and remove the restlessness nights besides so strengthening the renal organs that I was no longer embarrassed by the kidney secretions. I was greatly gratified by the satisfactory results I obtained and my advice to others is to go to Milhous drug store and procure Doan's Kidney Pills if in need of a remedy of this nature."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents per box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo N. Y. sole agents for the U. S.

Remember the name Doan's and take no other.

Auto Ran Off Embankment.

New York, Oct. 7.—While speeding along in the Bronx this morning an automobile containing nine persons went off a twenty-five-foot embankment at 161st street and Jerome avenue, and two women were killed. The machine fell to the New York Central railroad tracks and the wreckage was struck by a southbound train.

Story Was a Fake.

London, Oct. 7.—It is not true, as cabled to the United States by a news agency here, that fifty persons have been killed by the explosion of an ammunition magazine at Sevastopol. There was a fire in the ammunition depots at Sevastopol on Oct. 1 and some powder exploded, but there were no fatalities.

Good For Children.

The pleasant to take and harmless One Minute Cough Cure gives instant relief in all cases of Cough, Croup and LaGrippe because it does not pass immediately into the stomach, but takes effect right at the seat of the trouble. Pellens and W. F. Peter Drug Co.

If you ever took DeWitt's Little Early Risers for biliousness or constipation you know what pill pleasure is. These famous little pills cleanse the liver and rid the system of all bile without producing unpleasant effects. ## FARMERS TO MEET

Important Gathering Announced For Purdue Next Week.

A STATE - WIDE PICNIC

It is Expected That a Thousand Visitors Will Be Present at Two Days' Session.

Propriety of Introducing Study of Agriculture in Rural Schools to Be Discussed.

Lafayette, Ind., Oct. 7.—Former Governor Hoard of Wisconsin will attend the state-wide basket picnic and conference of farmers' institute workers at Purdue University and will make an address Tuesday afternoon in Fowler hall. The speech will be along agricultural lines. Arrangements are being made by the attaches of the agricultural department at the university to entertain a thousand visitors during the two days' meeting. New questions will arise at the meeting and the propriety of introducing the study of agriculture in the rural schools will be taken up. There is a strong sentiment at Purdue in favor of the introduction of the study in branch schools, and there is a movement on foot to spread by farmers' institutes over the state an interest in agriculture among the young people.

LEGACY MUST BE PAID

Supreme Court Decision as to Will Found by Spirit Medium.

Indianapolis, Oct. 7.—The supreme court has decided that the executors of Hiram Bradley's estate must pay over to his nephew's family in Michigan the $1,000 legacy which he bequeathed to the nephew. Bradley's will was not discovered until five years after his death and until his widow had settled the estate and had taken possession of all his property. It was then discovered by the aid of a spirit medium. Its validity was attacked on the ground of alleged forgery and fraud, but the court upheld the will. The widow received only one-third of the estate, the bulk of it being given to the commandery of Knights Templar to which Bradley belonged. All the money of the estate having been spent, Mrs. Bradley sued to compel the executors to pay her husband's legacy out of the real estate, and the court holds they must do so.

Authorities Investigating.

LaPorte, Ind., Oct. 7.—Mystery surrounds the discovery of the partly decomposed body of a well dressed stranger on a sandbar in the Kankakee river near LaCrosse, LaPorte county. A bullet hole in the back of the head indicates murder. No valuables and no papers that would lead to the identification of the body were found. The body is that of a middle-aged man, weighing 180 pounds, five feet ten or eleven inches tall and of dark complexion. The authorities are investigating.

Killed by Low Bridge.

Indianapolis, Oct. 7.—Samuel Lawrence, a brakeman employed by the Big Four road, was killed at Guilford hill, near Lawrenceburg. Lawrence evidently forgot the location of an overhead bridge. #### Pushing the Work Along.
